

Rosa Parks

Today in class 8 we learnt about who Rosa Parks was and her impact on society.

When we came into the classroom, Miss White gave us a ticket, either a blue one or a pink one. We then realised that there weren't enough seats in the room. Miss White said that if we had a pink ticket we had to give our seat to a person with a blue ticket, we thought this was really unfair just because of the colour of our ticket!

Miss White said this actually happened but based on people's skin colour instead of ticket colour!

We then heard the story of the "If a bus could talk". This told us the story of Rosa Parks and what happened to her.

We listened to the Horrible Histories song as well, we loved this!
