

Class 9 studied Martin Luther King for black history week.

As a class, we discussed Martin Luther King and civil rights. Some children could share what they already knew about him with the rest of the class. We discussed what life was like for black people at this time, which really engaged the whole class, as some of them found it hard to imagine. We listened and watched Dr Martin Luther King's "I have a dream speech" and discussed his ideas and vision of the future. Following this, we thought about our dreams for the future and shared ideas with the whole class, commenting on what would make a better, happier world.

"It's hard to imagine how they must have felt being treated like that" James Hill

"My dreams for the future are the same as Martin Luther King's. I hope that the world becomes a happier place to live, where everyone is treated equally" Casey-Brooke Stothard

I Have a Dream...
Dr Martin Luther King Jr. envisioned a world where people of all backgrounds and colors of skin could love and respect one another. This was his dream. What is your dream for the future?

I have a dream that everyone will be treated with respect.
I have a dream that everyone will get payed the same amount of money. I have a dream that everyone has a right to be happy.

I Have a Dream...
Dr Martin Luther King Jr. envisioned a world where people of all backgrounds and colors of skin could love and respect one another. This was his dream. What is your dream for the future?

I have a dream that no-one will be rich and no-one will be poor but everyone has the same amount of money to end world hunger. I dream everybody will have a small home or a warm clothing & shoes etc. I also dream everyone will have at least central heat ^{or a way to} or a way to keep warm and cook.

Super Bailey, well done.