

“My daughter has settled into her new nursery very well. She is happy to come and talk about her experiences. I see varied exciting learning experiences for her daily. My daughter is building great relationships with the staff—thankyou.”

“My daughter has come on in leaps and bounds since joining meadows, we are very happy with the progress shown. A big thankyou to all of the meadows staff! You’ve done a great job guys.”

“I am really happy with my son’s progress in nursery- he really enjoys coming here and the range of activity is brilliant (although I have to wait to see his book to find out what he has been doing as he just says playing).”

“My son is enjoying his time at nursery and has made new friendships. He enjoys coming home and telling me about his day and what he has learnt.”

“My daughter enjoys reading and writing at home. She will talk about nursery lots at home and all her friends. We are very pleased with my daughter’s learning and development.”

“I’m so proud, my son has come along lovely. He is so happy.”

“I have enjoyed every minute reading through her book again and is brilliant to see how well she has progressed in everything she does.”

“Thank you for your work.”

“My daughter loves coming to nursery. She likes to read to her family when she is at home. She is so much more confident. Thank you to all nursery staff for making our little girl happy.”

“I’m really pleased with the progress my daughter has made she enjoys coming to nursery and has made some good friends.”

“My son is very happy in nursery and really enjoys all of the activities he does. We can see how his confidence has improved. He is enjoying learning to read and loves playing outside.”

“I am really pleased on how my son has settled, especially coming from a smaller nursery into a bigger class, and I put this down to the teachers here being very supportive and attentive to son’s needs. I think that my son will glow in confidence with the teaching here.”

“My son has settled well into nursery. He’s developed well with his numbers and colours. Now to master letters.”

“My son has made great progress over the last term. He now independently writes his name, recognises numbers and letters. He enjoys nursery and talks enthusiastically about activities he has completed during the day.”

“My son is progressing really well, he enjoys coming to nursery and has made lots of friends.”

“My daughter is a really happy child. Always finding creative ways to express herself. At the moment she attends weekly swimming classes and is starting to learn to ride her bike. My daughter loves to express herself through music, singing and dance. I have been impressed with her retention of songs learnt whilst at nursery, she teaches me new things every day. Her big sister tries to read to her daily and sounds out letters to her. My daughter really wants to learn- so chuffed with her development.

“Really pleased with how my son has come on since starting nursery. He loves looking at books and telling me the letters and has been working hard to blend them.”

“I am very happy with my son’s development at nursery, he has learnt so many new things and comes home every day letting us know what he has done. My son has come so far with his speech since nursery. I am very happy with all his new achievements.”

“Very pleased with my daughter. She really enjoys attending nursery.”

“My daughter has started coming home and enthusiastically telling us all about the things she is learning about at school. Her pronunciation of letters has really improved recently.”

“My daughter is a lot more confident. Knows her letters and numbers.”

“I am really pleased with how my son has settled, especially after coming back. After half term, he certainly seems more settled. I put this down to the teachers being supportive and attentive to my son’s needs. I think my son will grow in more confidence with the teaching here.”

“Was wonderful to see how my son is making progress at nursery. And especially wonderful to see him happy and playing. It’s lovely to see he’s sharing with other children and learning how he should behave. So happy that he’s now settled and not getting upset every day.”

“I am so pleased that he has settled so well into nursery. I think it helped having his sister here as well, she has helped out lots to make him feel comfortable. I am so happy to see how he has already started to progress in certain areas, especially in writing words out.”

“My son seems happy attending nursery and with the friendships he has made.”

“My daughter is happy in her setting. No concerns”

“It’s lovely to see my daughter’s progression. She has come on leaps and bounds since starting nursery. Super proud! Well done to my daughter.”

“My son has improved gradually. He can recognise letters in his name. He generally enjoys coming to nursery.”

“He is doing well in his studies, playing with cars football and learning to speak English.”
